

One Voice to Unite Vegas in Worship

By Briana Mackey

In early March, thousands of voices throughout Las Vegas will join together in an unprecedented gesture of Christian unity and love. Dozens of worship leaders will unite March 6, 2011, as part of a new program called One Voice, and will lead their church bodies in singing the same songs of worship to our Lord. How sweet the sound.

The vision of One Voice, founded by Gwen Baden and Alice Lipkin, was delivered by the Holy Spirit in the words, "That My children shall come before Me in agreement and unity in one voice throughout the valley." According to Baden and Lipkin, worship leaders have been meeting monthly to pray and select the initial date for the One Voice effort, as well as choose the first line up of praise and worship songs. The songs selected for all participating church bodies to sing March 6 include: "How Great is Our God," "Amazing Grace," and "Holy is the Lord."

Among the fellowships committed to One Voice thus far are International Church of Las Vegas (ICLV), Works of My Father/Casa de Luz, Hope Baptist Church, The Encounter Community Church, Highland Hills Baptist Church, Oasis Baptist Church and others.

Any and all churches are encouraged to participate, said Lipkin. One Voice would like to know which churches are joining in worship so they can celebrate this gesture of love toward God. In addition, organizers are working to create an after-church gathering for all worship leaders. Lipkin also mentioned that One Voice is hoping to facilitate future events to get more fellowships involved. Ideas include engaging worship dancers, sign language artists and more.

In the weeks leading up to March 6, One Voice participants will be working to spread the word and spend time in prayer and fasting. (See One Voice, Page 27)

Do you believe in love at first sight?

Question on the Street

By: Gary McDorman, The Answer's Photographer

AnTrese

Yes, but I believe that it's all physical, because you haven't seen the person's heart.

Mandana

Yes, because sometimes you just know.

Erika

No, because attraction isn't love.

Briana

I believe that, if we really take on Jesus' heart, we should feel love at first sight for everyone.

Art

As our hearts become pure, I believe all we will see is love.

ence. Jesus knew His Father's commands and loved Him so much that He was always obedient. Jesus always did what pleased

His Father. In John 14:21 Jesus tells us if we have His commands, and obey them, then we are showing our love for Jesus. When we show our love for Jesus, we are showing we love His Father.

It is not a matter of what commands we will obey. It is a matter of being like Jesus and obeying every command.

There is a saying in poker "I'm all in."

It means, a player pushes all his chips into the betting pot. He is wagering he has the best hand at the table. Do we go all in when it comes to obeying God's commands? We know how deep God's love is for us. How deep is our love for Him?

funded, tuition-based school with a certain religion being the foundation for all academics.

Kemala Washington, principal of Jo Mackey Elementary School, gives this advice to parents: "Do your research— that means check the staff stability, test scores, class sizes and take a tour of the school to see if the theme is a good fit for your child."

There are numerous websites to aid in the research of school options including www.greatschools.net and www.ccsd.org. Both of these provide up to-date statistics on state test scores, teacher certifications and the population diversity breakdown of each school.

All parents want the best for their children and what's right for your neighbors' child may not be right for yours. It's a personal decision that must be made with guidance and understanding and plenty of research, not to mention prayer.

According to Lipkin, they've been meditating on Zech 12:5,6: "Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the Lord of hosts, their God.' On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot in the midst of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves. And they shall devour to the right and to the left all the surrounding peoples, while Jerusalem shall again be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem."
